Surroundings:

You can visit island of Korčula which is a lush with green vegetation and aromatic plants. Korčula town is one of the best preserved medieval towns of the Mediterranean. This is a beautiful little town and the birthplace of Marco Polo. It has plenty of meandering streets to wander along, and cosy little shops, bars and restaurants to stop at.

Extra services:

Bothway transfer for guests to the lighthouse is organized from Prigradica. Price of the transfer is 130 EUR per apartment and it is paid on the spot. Guests are transferred by Mr. Ante Petkovic on a fast rubber dinghy. The transfer to Plocica takes 10 to 15 minutes, depending on sea conditions. In case of unfavorable weather conditions or if the number of guests exceeds 7, guests are transferred on a larger boat with cabin. This kind of transfer is slower and takes from 30 to 45 minutes, depending on sea condition.

Note:

Food can be purchased before taking the ferry in Split or in Vela Luka. Please make sure not to be late for your scheduled transfer. A supply of additional provisions can be arranged with Ante Petkovic at extra charge. Furthermore, sea food diet can be arranged with Mr. Petkovic.
