Surroundings:

500 meters from the villa there are restaurants serving local cuisine, where you can make reservations for lunch or dinner. On the way to the village Rukavac there is an excellent restaurant called "Ferol", and in Rukavac there is a restaurant next to the sea called "Dalmatino".

In the town of Vis there are more well-known restaurants like "Morski Val", "Vatrica", as well as "Villa Kaliopa" with its wonderful and unique atmosphere and a park of palm trees.

During the summer Vis abounds in cultural events such as concerts, theatrical performances and regattas. A part of the tourist offer are also excursions around the island and trips to coves Stiniva, Stončica Srebrna, Rukavac, Zaglov, Rude and Trovna with the restaurant owned by Senko Karuza. There are regular excursions to "Modra špilja" () on the island of Biševo, as well as short trips to the islands of Sveti Andrija and Brusnik. Komiža is a town-museum due to its position and the preserved unity of the old settlement. It has also lots of restaurants and places to go out. Some of the restaurants are "Bako", "Nono", "Jastožera", "Modra špilja", etc.

Note:

The nearest bigger airport is Split airport, which is connected regularly with most of major cities in Europe.

Town of Vis is the port for ferries connecting the island of Vis with Split. The journey takes about 2-3 hours (please check with the Jadrolinija - www.jadrolinija.hr).
